

Inspired Communities Workshop

April 8-9, 2022

Camphill Communities of North America

FRIDAY, APRIL 8th

Session #1

11:00-1:00 pm EST

Recognizing the Wholeness of the Individual

Welcome, Introductions

Introduction to the Three Essentials of Camphill (Guy Alma, The Camphill School)
Practical Applications of the First Essential (Nathan McLaughlin, Camphill Hudson)
What does dignity in action look like to you? (Breakouts)

Session #2

3:00-5:00 pm EST

Personal Growth and Inner Development

Practical Applications of the Second Essential (Johannes Schlitz)
How would you incorporate personal growth on a day to day basis? (Breakouts)
Personal Growth and Leadership stories (Brooke Hogan and Claudia Swenk)
Incorporating Personal Growth into an Initiative (Tom Brackett)

SATURDAY, APRIL 9th

Session #3

11:00-1:00 pm EST

Equality, Freedom, and Fellowship

Practical Applications of the Third Essential (Claus Sproll and Jackie Case)
Many Hands story (Kerry Kafafian)
What do equality, freedom, and fellowship look like to you? How might you envision this third essential expressing itself in the community you imagine? (Large group discussion)

Session #4

3:00-4:30 pm EST

Reflections

Questions: *What spiritual or cultural practices support your work?
How does it feel to engage in work that serves others?
Where do choice and agency fit into all of this?*
(Breakouts)

Reflections: Next steps? What would support your journey?
(Large group discussion)